"Royalty" To Appear in Independence Parade

Who says that royalty and democracy don't mix?

Although the words "king" and "queen" might not be the first words you think of when you hear the phrase "Fourth of July," there is a connection between them – at least in the City of Romulus.

That's because the Romulus Senior Center's King and Queen for 1998 – Louis Mitchell and Dolores Nowlin – will be appearing in the City's annual Independence Day/Hometown Celebration Parade, set for Friday, July 3.

The parade serves as a preamble to the all-day, family-oriented community picnic planned for Saturday, July 4, at Elmer Johnson Park. Events will include a "Patriotic Praise and Prayer" assembly, Kiwanis Club pancake breakfast, "Firefighters' Waterball" program, softball tournament, home run derby, children's games, DJ and karaoke music, and – the crowning event – a beautiful fireworks display, funded by donations from local businesspeople.

For a complete schedule of events, plus a list of fireworks sponsors, see pages 12 and 13. □

Romulus Youths Win Basketball Tournament

Emerging victorious from Inkster's Team Wheatley 1998 Roundball Classic (age 13–14 division) on the weekend of June 5–7 were the Bilals, a team of eight Romulus youths under the able tutelage of "Coach" Green.

"I'm so proud of these guys," Green bragged. "This is the best team I have ever coached. They have really surprised me with how well they played together. Their attitudes and sportsmanship were good throughout the tournament and, most important of all, they played together as a team."

"That's the reason that we came out on top – the winners," he added.

The Bilals moved to the championship finals by defeating the Magic by a score of 53–40 on Friday, June 5, followed by the Dream Team (65–37) on Saturday, June 6. On Sunday, June 7, they clinched their first-place position by beating the Inkster All-stars, 34–26.

Green and the Bilals – Paul Brown, Michael Christopher, Anson Long, Bryant Murphy, Charles Searcy, Johnston Watson, Demetrius White, and Kevin White – thank their sponsor, Ezell Wooden, for his support. □

RHS Seniors Honored at Luncheon

The Romulus Board of Education continued a graduation tradition by sponsoring a luncheon for Romulus High School seniors on June 5, just prior to the seniors' rehearsal for the following day's commencement ceremony. High School Principal Dan Hurst welcomed those in attendance, then spoke of the caring, community-minded Class of '98, and how much it will be missed by the school's staff and students.

Buddies Work Together at Halecreek

During "Buddies Week" at Halecreek Elementary School, Ryan McLachlan brought his dad, Robert McLachlan, to school to share his kindergarten experiences and participate in some special activities and projects. Many buddies were surprised at how much kindergarten has changed since their own school days.

Middle School Band Enjoys Spring Tour

The Romulus Middle School Tour Band recently returned from an exciting trip that successfully mixed "business" and pleasure, according to Band Director Richard Kruse.

On Thursday, May 21, 75 Middle School band students, along with Kruse and a number of parent chaperones, departed from Romulus on a five-day trip to play at Florida's Universal Studios for what turned out to be a standing-room-only crowd. The band gave a typically fine performance, living up to the excellent reputation that Romulus has established throughout the United States.

Along the way, the students got a chance to enjoy a little fun at locales such as the Six Flags theme park in Atlanta, Georgia, and Disney World in Orlando, Florida.

To be eligible to attend, each student had to:

- be a good performer on his/her instrument and be able to keep up with the tour band;
- maintain good behavior and good attendance at band events during the year;
- demonstrate trustworthy and respectful character throughout the year; and
- meet the financial terms of the trip, which cost about $380 (plus food) per child.

Wohlfeil's Pet Supply Can Get It for You Cheep . . . er, Cheap

"You name it, we have it – and we'll deliver it, too," says Wohlfeil Pet Supplies' proprietor, Dick Wohlfeil.

By Rikki Strobos

"I always did like Romulus," says Dick Wohlfeil, proprietor of the newly opened Wohlfeil's Pet Supplies at 36611 Goddard Road in downtown Romulus. "When my family lived here years ago, I got to know the area and its residents really well. When I decided to come back and open a shop in this part of town, I went to see Joe Lambert, whom I had known in the '50s. He's the one who helped me get going."

Wohlfeil is especially appreciative of Lambert's help because, even though he has worked around the pet-supply industry for several years, he's relatively new to the world of business ownership. In fact, before opening his current store in April of 1998, Wohlfeil's experience as a proprietor was limited to a one-year stint at a less advantageous location on Van Born Road.

Don't let that fool you, though. It would be hard to find someone more knowledgeable about his field.

"When I began raising birds in 1991 for my own personal enjoyment, I had no idea how quickly my little hobby would become a serious passion," Wohlfeil recalls. "So when the grocery warehouse where I had worked for 33 years was sold to Foodland, forcing me into early retirement at the age of 50, I suddenly found that I had more than enough time to indulge that passion and turn it into a profitable venture."

Both Wohlfeil and his store manager, Bill Crane, have worked hard to make the Pet Supply a convenient and affordable place to shop.

"You name it, we have it – and we'll deliver it, too," Wohlfeil proudly boasts. "Besides carrying reputable pet lines such as Pat's Birds, and offering a wide variety of premium foods like Westland Dog Food, we also specialize in hard-to-find pet products, and we'll be happy to take your order for merchandise that's not in stock. We even perform special services such as making cat furniture to order."

Because Wohlfeil loves to encourage others to share his love of animals, he says that he gives customers 10% off their initial pet-supply order when they adopt a pet from the Romulus Animal Shelter. And his commitment to making your new hobby an affordable one doesn't stop there: "If you can buy a product cheaper somewhere else, let me know, and I'll check around and try to match the price," he promises.

The 58-year-old Wohlfeil, educated at Romulus High School, has lived in Wayne since 1961. He and his wife, a dairy-plant employee, have two sons, both of whom are drivers for the CCX trucking company. Wohlfeil himself has been a truck driver for K & S Pet Supplies since 1992.

Although the Pet Supply is open Monday through Saturday from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m., Wohlfeil says that he's always happy to extend his hours to meet special customer needs. For more information, call 955-9741. □

As in the past, special trips will be scheduled for most Fridays; however, the cost of these trips is not included in the basic registration fee of $25 per child ($40 for two family members; $60 for three or more).

A number of rules concerning dress codes and standards of behavior have been established. Parents should be aware that these rules will be strictly enforced, and that any child who does not comply with these rules will not be permitted to participate.

LEAPFROG

Write the word(s) that fits definition #1 into the correspondingly numbered box. Next, drop one letter and anagram (rearrange) the remaining letters to find the answer to definition #2. Perform the same drop-a-letter/anagram procedure on word #2 to arrive at the answer to definition #3. Place the first dropped letter in the space to the left of answer #1 and the second in the space to the right of answer #3. Repeat this process on each line of the puzzle. If the puzzle is done correctly, the dropped letters, read from top to bottom, will spell out some timely phrases.

Celebrate Independence Day In Style, AAA Michigan Says

Communities throughout Michigan will focus on fireworks, food, parades, and other special events this Fourth of July to celebrate the 222nd anniversary of the United States.

The list of events below was compiled by AAA Michigan as a sampling of festive activities across the State. So, mark your calendar and plan to enjoy a special Independence Day weekend.

West Michigan

It's up, up, and away with the Team U.S. National Hot-air Balloon Championship and Air Show, to be held July 3-11 at the W.K. Kellogg Airport in Battle Creek.

More than 130 hot-air balloons will turn the sky into a kaleidoscope from Saturday, July 4, through Friday, July 10. Spectators will see seven-story-high balloons in a splendid array of colors and shapes (including "tigers," "bears," and "pumpkins"), so don't forget to bring your camera.

But the excitement won't stop with the balloon launch. Battle Creek also will feature one of the Nation's top air shows from 11 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Friday, July 3, through Sunday, July 5. Aerobatic stunt pilots will dazzle the crowds with more than 13 different acts. Single and team aircraft will fly "rolls," "hammerheads," and "bomb bursts." To top it all off, the U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds will take flight in F-16 jets for a dynamic, patriotic performance. Daily admission is $5 per person; $4 parking. For information, call 616-962-0592.

East Michigan

Celebrate an old-fashioned Fourth at Flint's Crossroads Village and Huckleberry Railroad. Lend a hand cranking an ice-cream maker, buy some lemonade from a sidewalk stand, and watch a traditional small-town parade, set for 3 p.m. on July 4.

Other activities will include live entertainment in the Opera House, craft demonstrations in village homes and industries, excursions on the Huckleberry Railroad, and relaxing cruises on Mott Lake aboard the Genesee Belle. Visitors also can ride vintage amusement park rides, including a miniature train and a pony cart.

Admission is $9 for adults, $8 for seniors 60 and up, and $6 for children four to 12. Youngsters three and under are admitted free. For further information, call 800-648-7275.

Southwest Michigan

Lansing will swing into Independence Day festivities with a concert in Oldsmobile Park, where the Greater Lansing Symphony Orchestra will perform an all-American, Hollywood salute starting at 8 p.m. on July 4. Musical selections will include Broadway themes such as "New York, New York" and "Shenandoah," as well as patriotic orchestrations such as the "1812 Overture," "Stars and Stripes Forever," and "America The Beautiful." A magnificent fireworks display will cap the celebration. Admission for adults is $10; $5 for children two to 12. For further details, call 517-483-7412.

Northwest Michigan

The National Cherry Festival in Traverse City kicks off July 4 with the thrilling Thorn Apple Valley Festival Grand Prix. Specially designed one-third-scale Indy cars will compete in a 30-lap race from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., and car buffs can enjoy the Classic Car and Truck Show at Civic Center. This new event will feature a nostalgic look at the autos and trucks which have captured America's imagination for generations.

An exciting air show will run from 2:30 to 4 p.m., as the U.S. Navy Blue Angels fly over West Grand Traverse Bay. During the evening (7:30 to 10:30 p.m.), enjoy "Country Music Night" with the popular singers LeAnn Rimes and Bryan White at the Traverse Bay Casino Resorts Music Stage. At dusk, a spectacular fireworks extravaganza will enchant crowds gathered at West Grand Traverse Bay.

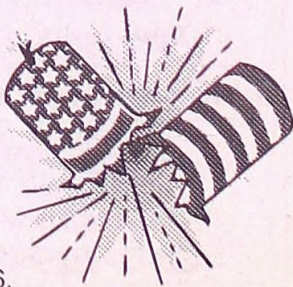

Southeast Michigan

Don't miss a picturesque and patriotic "Salute to America" at Greenfield Village. Now in its sixth year, this popular series of evening concerts by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra with the U.S. Army Field Band and Soldiers Chorus provides a unique entertainment opportunity for music lovers of all ages. Concerts will be featured Thursday, July 2, through Saturday, July 4, from 8:30 to 10 p.m. Fireworks will light the skies on all three nights after the concerts. Admission is $18 per adult; $9 per child.

Upper Peninsula

Savor Independence Day at the International Food Fest, to be sponsored July 2-4 by the Marquette Exchange Club. Vendors from a host of foreign countries—China, Thailand, Italy, England, France, and Mexico—will serve their specialties on all three evenings to guests in Lower Harbor Park. Live entertainment will be provided on Thursday, July 2. On Friday, a parade of decorated, illuminated boats will delight crowds gathered at the harbor. Fireworks will follow. Activities on Saturday will include a traditional parade and a firemen's competition. For more information, please call 906-475-7816.

One American Tradition
You Can Live Without!

Fireworks. Parades. Barbecues. Fun. It's all part of a grand tradition that celebrates the birth of this great nation. But unfortunately, so is alcohol.

Every year thousands of holiday revellers perish or are injured in alcohol-related accidents all across America's highways. And that's the kind of legacy that nobody would actively choose to be a part of. Yet each time you drink and get behind the wheel of a car, you're taking a chance with your life, the life of your passengers, or that of an innocent bystander.

This year, as we celebrate our freedom and independence, exercise yours by choosing wisely.

Romulus High School Students Receive Scholarships, Awards

Alumni Association Awards $3,000

The Romulus High School Alumni Association awarded a total of $3,000 in scholarship money to four outstanding students from the Class of 1998.

Receiving a $1,000 scholarship was Jessica Johnson, who plans to use the money to begin her studies at the University of Michigan – Dearborn. Other awards garnered by the National Honor Society member and community activist were a Michigan Competitive Scholarship/Grant, a University of Michigan–Dearborn Scholarship, and a scholarship from Wayne County Community College.

Another $1,000 scholarship recipient was Linda Ryznar, who plans to attend either Albion College or Wayne State University in order to prepare for a career in the medical field. The well-rounded Ryznar was active in both sports and extracurricular activities during her high-school career, yet still found time to earn co-salutatorian honors by maintaining an outstanding 4.069 grade-point average. Ryznar's other awards included an Albion College Academic Scholarship, a Michigan Competitive Scholarship/Grant, a Romulus Education Association Memorial Scholarship, a Romulus Rotary Scholarship, and a Wayne State University Presidential Scholarship.

Amber Long, who plans to attend the University of Michigan, received a $500 scholarship from the Alumni Association. Besides being a good student, Long was President of Romulus High School's Class of 1998, President of Student Government, an unflagging volunteer for numerous Project SERVE activities, and a member of the school's marching band throughout her four years there. Long's other awards included the Ray Kroc Award, a Senior Class Sponsor/Initiative Award, and a Wayne-Romulus Optimist Club Scholarship.

The fourth Alumni Scholarship winner was Jeremy Hall, who received $500 toward his education at either Eastern or Western Michigan University. A spirited member of the Class of 1998, Hall also found time to do volunteer work with Special Olympics.

Special Tree Gives $500 to Penrod

Nicole Penrod, who graduated from Romulus High School earlier this month, was one of three local students selected as winners of Special Tree Rehabilitation System's 1998 Health Care and Rehabilitation scholarship award. Other area students who also will receive $500 to help them pursue health-oriented careers were Huron Township's Matthew Laginess and Amy Brown of Belleville.

Penrod—who also received a Health Occupations Award and a Michigan Competitive Scholarship/Grant—plans to begin her studies at Henry Ford Community College, then go on to complete a nursing degree at Michigan State University. Laginess has enrolled at Eastern Michigan University with the hopes of becoming a chiropractor, while Brown will pursue a degree in radiography from Ferris State University.

Each year, Special Tree awards up to nine scholarships to high-school seniors based on the students' academic achievement, community and school activities, and interest in health and rehabilitation careers. This year's recipients include eight seniors in Wayne, Oakland, and Saginaw counties, each of whom will be awarded funds to assist with their college tuition. This is the fourth year that Special Tree has given scholarships to local students.

Special Tree offers rehabilitation services for people who have experienced life-altering changes such as head injuries and strokes. The Romulus-based rehabilitation provider hopes that the scholarship program will help promote head-injury safety and awareness, particularly among young people. It's also a way for applicants to learn of employment opportunities that the company has to offer.

"We are very proud of our 1998 winners, who were selected from a fine pool of applicants," remarked Special Tree Scholarship Chairperson Ken Handwerger. "It is always a pleasure for our organization when we're able to strengthen our partnership with the schools and community."

Twenty Renton Students Join National Junior Honor Society

The faculty and administration of Huron's Renton Junior High honored 20 of its top students recently by inducting them into the National Junior Honor Society.

To qualify for membership, a student must have a 3.5 grade point average. All students meeting that criterion who want to be members are then judged by a faculty council on the basis of scholarship, service, leadership, character, and citizenship.

The students who were inducted are: Michael Boren, Ryan Brach, Becky Cordts, David Craven, Danielle Curry, Donald Fecay, Julie Jaroszewski, Michelle Lenz, Danielle Muheisen, Carl Novak, Frank Palumbo, Laura Schrock, John Sly, Jesse Schmalzried, Kirsten Strong, Mary Swatek, Jason Thornberry, Ashley Trudeau, Nick Vitale, and Elizabeth White.

Renton principal Douglas Babcock said, "It is important for our students to be recognized for achievement in areas that will benefit them throughout their educational and vocational careers. These young people are already contributing to the school and the community. Membership in this organization will help them continue to attain high standards of scholarship and behavior."

The National Junior Honor Society ranks as one of the oldest and most prestigious national student organizations. Millions of America's top junior-high students have become members. The Society, founded in 1929, is sponsored by the National Association of Secondary School Principals. Renton Junior High teacher Mary McKinney is the chapter advisor. □

Sassy Seniors

By Mary E. Clark

Special thanks to Audry Moomaw, Manager of the Romulus Tower, and Linda Norman, Senior Citizens Program Coordinator for the City of Romulus, for contributing information to this issue's "Sassy Seniors" column.

(Note: For more information about events at the Romulus Senior Center, located at 36515 Bibbins, call 942-6852.)

Happy Birthday

Best wishes for a wonderful birthday to those of my Tower neighbors born in July: Helen Dobbins, Jessie Green, Juanita Johnson, Mike Kostecki, Esther Lloyd, Rummie Mayle, Kamala Merriweather, Theresa Standhardt, Ethel Teague, and Thomas Vassallo.

Senior Olympics

Romulus seniors are urged to represent their home town and show off their skills at the annual Downriver Senior Olympics, which will be hosted by Allen Park the week of August 3-7.

Seniors can register for one or more of the following Senior Olympics events: swimming, shuffleboard, bocci ball, bowling, golf scramble, tennis, ping-pong, volleyball, basketball shoot, softball throw, horseshoes, ring toss, frisbee toss, darts, billiards, euchre, pinocle, and bridge. A banquet - open to the entrants and their friends and relatives - will wrap up the event on August 7.

To participate, seniors must register at the Romulus Senior Center by June 30. For information regarding scheduling, costs, etc., call the Center.

"National Night Out . . . Our Way"

Romulus Crime Prevention Officer Joe Richardson and Senior Program Coordinator Linda Norman are in the process of planning "National Night Out . . . Our Way" in recognition of the National Association of Town Watch's annual "National Night Out" program. The unique crime- and drug-prevention program - set for Tuesday, August 4, from 4:30 p.m. to 1 a.m. - will include dinner ($3.50), music by Willie Hester, and a variety of amusements such as a hay ride, "Las Vegas Moments" (roulette, "wheel of fortune," etc.), a dance contest, frisbee and ring tosses, a basketball shoot, darts, a dunk tank, and more. "National Night Out" is designed to heighten crime- and drug-prevention awareness; generate support for, and participation in, local anticrime programs; strengthen neighborhood spirit and police-community partnerships; and send a message to criminals, letting them know that neighborhoods are organized and fighting back.

Exercise Class

The Romulus Senior Center is offering a free, twice-weekly toning/stretching/exercise class on Tuesdays and Fridays at 9:15 a.m.

The Center recommends that all participants wear comfortable clothing, and urges anyone unused to physical exertion to consult a physician before beginning.

Important Changes in Medicare

The Sumpter Senior Center has invited Romulus seniors to join them on Tuesday, June 30, to hear a speaker discuss important changes in the Medicare program.
